

2024-2025 Financial Aid Professional Judgment Checklist

Please indicate the circumstance that applies to you and your family: Special Circumstance refers to financial situations (e.g., loss of a job, separation, divorce, death, excessive medical expenses, etc.) that may justify a review of your FAFSA results and aid eligibility. Unusual Circumstance refers to a unique situation (e.g., parental abandonment or abuse, no parental contact, incarceration, etc.) that may justify a change in a student's dependency status. Professional Judgment (PJ) requests should be submitted with Lrequired supporting documentation. A review of your situation cannot be made iuAWays to submit your request and documentation: 1. Hand deliver your completed Professional Judgment checklist along with all the required supporting documents to the Student Financial Services Office? lease do not email sensitive information. 2. Upload your forms and documents by logging on to your student portal. Click My Documents, then Document Center. Scroll down to the UploadDocument section. Select the required document, then choose your file to upload. Last Name First Name M.I. Social Security Number/Stude#t Zip Code Address (includeapt. #) City State Date of Birth Lindenwood-mail Address PhoneNumber (include area code) Special Circumstance Required Documents † Copyof the surviving spouser parent's 2022 W2s or 2022 IRS wage and income transcript. † Death of a Parent or Spouse † Copy of death certificate or obituary (parent/ spouse)